Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This notice applies to the information and records we have about your health, health status and the healthcare and service you receive at this office. This notice describes information about the privacy practices that are followed by our employees. We are required by law to give you this notice. It will tell you about the ways in which we may disclose health information about you and describes your rights and our obligations regarding the use and disclosure of that information.

We may use and disclose your medical records only for each of the following purposes: treatment, payment, healthcare operations and special situations allowed or required by law.

Treatment means providing, coordinating, or managing health care and related services by one or more healthcare providers. Some examples of this would include a physical examination, or a referral to a specialist.

Payment means such activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, confirming coverage, billing or collection activities, and utilization review. An example of this would be sending a bill for your visit to your insurance company for payment.

Healthcare Operations include the business aspects of running our practice, such as conducting quality assessment and improvement activities, auditing functions, cost-management analysis, and customer service. An example would be an internal quality assessment review.

Special Situations may include subpoena, workers' compensation, law enforcement, coroners, health oversight activities, situations to avert a serious threat to health or safety, or other situations allowed or required by law. An example would be a subpoena received from a court of law requesting health information.

Other uses and disclosures require your authorization. Disclosure of your health information or its use for any purpose other than those listed above requires your specific written authorization. If you change your mind after authorizing a use or disclosure of your information you may submit a written revocation of the authorization. However, your decision to revoke the authorization will not affect or undo any use or disclosure of information that occurred before you notified us of your decision to revoke your authorization.

We may use your health information to contact you to confirm your appointments.

Individual Rights

You have certain rights under the federal privacy standards. These include:

- The right to request restrictions on the use and disclosure of your protected health information.
- The right to reasonable requests to receive confidential communications of protected health information from us by alternative means or alternative locations.
- The right to inspect and copy your protected health information.
- The right to amend or submit corrections to your protected health information.
- The right to receive an accounting of how and to whom your protected health information has been disclosed.
- The right to receive a printed copy of this notice.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information and to provide you with the notice of privacy practices.

We are also required to abide by the privacy policies and practices that are outlined in this notice.

Right to Revise Privacy Practices

As permitted by law, we reserve the right to amend or modify our privacy policies and practices. These changes in our policies and practices may be required by changes in federal and state laws and regulations. Upon request, we will provide you with the most recently revised notice on any office visit. The revised policies and practices will be applied to all protected health information we maintain.

Complaints

If you would like to submit a comment or complaint about our privacy practices, you can do so by sending a letter outlining your concerns to:

Kodiak Community Health Center
Attn: Director of Operations
1911 E. Rezanof Dr.
Kodiak, AK 99615
(907) 481-5000

If you believe that your privacy rights have been violated, you should call the matter to our attention by sending a letter describing the cause of your concern to the address above.

You will not be penalized or otherwise retaliated against for filing a complaint.

Effective Date of this Notice

This Notice is effective on or after January 6, 2004.
